

Romklaopitthayasan School Announcement
Honest Aim in school governance

---

Romklaopitthayasan school has deliberately focused on managing the organization with good governance by emphasizing the prevention and suppression of corruption and misconduct in the school for building faith and convincing the society that Romklaopitthayasan school is a good governance organization.

As a director of Romklaopitthayasan school hereby, we would like to announce our intention to manage our administration with honesty, integrity and transparency. Also, we are willing to be inspected, as well as ready to take responsibility and fight against all forms of corruption. All personnel are encouraged to perform their duties with honesty, integrity, morality and without corruption under the following policies:

1. Transparency: Disclosing the information about the operations of the school, including procurement information. Giving the opportunities for people or stakeholders to take part in the audit and has a clear complaint management system
2. Responsibility: Performing duties with full efficiency under the law and regulations. Being responsible for decision-making and administration and ready to be inspected in order to have reliability on Romklaopitthayasan School
3. Corruption free: Performing duties with honesty. Using a favorable position to benefit yourself or accept bribes are unacceptable.
4. Moral culture in the organization: Allowing any type of corruption and neglecting to take action to prevent corruption in the school are unacceptable
5. Moral culture in the school: Specifying clear and fair performance standards in performance. Providing justice and transparency in personnel management, budget management and assignments

Hereby announced to be acknowledged by all involved

Announced on 17th May 2022

(Mr. Rachan Atwichai)

Director of Romklaopitthayasan School